DECLARATION OF COUNSEL PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 37(a)(1) and LOCAL RULE 37.2

I, MELISSA A. PENA, declare under the penalty of perjury, as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice law in the State of New York and before the Southern District of New York. I am an associate with the law firm of Norris, McLaughlin & Marcus, PA, local counsel for plaintiff, Sysco Food Services of Metro New York, LLC ("Sysco"). As such, I have knowledge of the facts set forth herein.

2. I submit this Declaration, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37 and Local Rule 37.2, in support of plaintiff's motion seeking the entry of an order compelling defendants to permit an inspection of defendants' books and records by plaintiff's forensic accountants.

3. On or about March 21, 2008, Sysco commenced this action seeking to collect from eight defendants unpaid invoices totaling $751,000. Thereafter, on or about May 7, 2008, defendants filed an Answer to the Complaint asserting various defenses.

4. On October 15, 2008, Sysco served defendants with a Demand for Production of Documents. Sysco further requested that defendants provide plaintiff with a convenient date and time for Sysco's accountants to review defendants' books and records.

5. When defendants failed to respond to Sysco's request for an inspection by its accountants, on November 26, 2008, co-counsel for Sysco, the Mitnick & Malzberg, P.C. firm, wrote to counsel for defendants, Lawrence W. Rader, Esq., reiterating Sysco's request for an inspection. Annexed hereto as Exhibit A is a true and accurate copy of the November 26, 2008 correspondence.

6. Thereafter, on April 1, 2009, during a discussion with Mr. Rader, I again reiterated Sysco's request for an inspection. I followed up such request in writing on April 2, 2009. Annexed hereto as Exhibit B is a true and accurate copy of my April 2, 2009 correspondence.

7. On April 17, 2009, with the Court's authorization, Sysco filed a motion to compel defendants to permit the inspection of their books and records by plaintiff's forensic accountants.

Sysco argued that such discovery was relevant to Count VIII of the Complaint, which alleged that the defendants intermingled their assets and, as a result, should be held jointly and severally liable for the entire debt due to plaintiff.

8. In response to Sysco's motion to compel discovery, on June 15, 2009, defendants file a cross-motion seeking to dismiss various counts of the Complaint, including Count VIII. Defendants sought the dismissal of Count VIII of the Complaint, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), for failure to state a cause of action.

9. On November 17, 2009, the Court entered a Memorandum and Order with respect to Sysco's motion to compel discovery and defendants' cross-motion to dismiss. Annexed hereto as Exhibit C is a true and accurate copy of the November 17, 2009 Memorandum and Order. In such Memorandum and Order, the Court dismissed Count VIII of the Complaint without prejudice through the submission of an Amended Complaint. See Exhibit C at 9. The Memorandum and Order further provides that "[t]he plaintiff may move to compel discovery at such time as it serves an amended complaint that properly pleads an alter ego theory." Id. at 10.

10. The November 17, 2009 Memorandum and Order also resulted in the dismissal of six of the eight defendants from this action.

11. On November 24, 2009, Sysco filed an Amended Complaint. Annexed hereto as Exhibit D is a true and accurate copy of the Amended Complaint. Count I of the Amended Complaint asserts a cause of action against defendant, Jekyll & Hyde, Inc. ("Jekyll") to recover the sum of $203,042.16 for unpaid invoices. See Exhibit D at p. 2-3. Count II of the Amended Complaint asserts a cause of action against defendant, Sixth Avenue Food Services Ltd. (“Sixth”) to recover the sum of $452,078.76 for unpaid invoices. See Id. at p. 2-3.

12. Count III of the Amended Complaint alleges that Jekyll and Sixth are the alter egos of one another and, thus, should be jointly and severally liable for the amounts due and owing to plaintiff. Specifically, Count III alleges as follows:

Upon information and belief, Defendants have the same officers, directors and shareholders.

Upon information and belief, Defendants share one or more of the same employees.

Defendants each conduct the same type of business, operating restaurants and bars in the New York City area.

Defendants commingled their liabilities to plaintiff. For example, on January 26, 2007, Jekyll paid the sum of $121,014.87 by check to plaintiff for goods sold, delivered and invoiced to Sixth. Annexed hereto as Exhibit “C” is a copy of the January 26, 2007 check and the invoices issued to Sixth Avenue, which were paid by such check.

Upon information and belief, Defendants were not treated as independent profit centers.

Upon information and belief, Defendants primarily transacted the business of one another such that the Defendants are alter egos of one another. Defendants’ businesses are so inextricably intertwined and, thus, justify a disregard of the corporate structures.

As a result of Defendants’ conduct, plaintiff has been damaged.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment that defendants Jekyll and Sixth are jointly and severally liable to plaintiff for the sum of $655,120.92, plus attorneys fees pursuant to the credit application or as permitted by law, plus costs.

See Exhibit D at 4-5.

13. On December 9, 2009, defendants filed an Answer to the Amended Complaint denying the allegations contained in Count III. Annexed hereto as Exhibit E is a true and accurate copy of the Answer.

14. In good faith, on February 1, 2010, I sent a correspondence to Mr. Rader again reiterating Sysco's request for an inspection of defendants' books and records by its forensic account. Annexed hereto as Exhibit F is a true and accurate copy of the correspondence. While Mr. Rader orally denied such request on February 17, 2009 and represented that he would set forth the basis of his objection in writing, to date, defendants have yet to respond to such request.

I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Dated: March 12, 2010

Dear Mr. Rader:

I note that Interrogatories were served on your office on May 15, 2008, and answers have not been received and are seriously past due. Additionally, I have not received the documents requested in my Demand for Production of Documents which was forwarded to you on October 15, 2008. You also have not provide my office with a convenient date and time when the accountants retained by the plaintiff can review your client's books and records, as requested in my letter to you dated October 15, 2008.

Please provide my office with responsive answers and the requested documents by December 15, 2008, or we will be forced to contact the Judge to get involved in the discovery process.

Once you have provided our office with the outstanding discovery we will reschedule the depositions.

RE: Sysco Food Services of Metro New York, LLC v. Jekyll & Hyde, Inc. et al.
Case Number: 08-CV-02958

Dear Mr. Rader:

As you will recall, this firm serves as local for plaintiff, Sysco Food Services of Metro, New York, LLC.

Pursuant to our discussion yesterday, this will serve as a formal demand that defendants make their books and records available for inspection by plaintiff's forensic accountants. As you are aware, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 26, plaintiff is entitled to discovery relevant to the subject matter involved in the above-reference action. Certainly the contents of defendants' books and records have bearing on the debt owed to plaintiff. Your argument that plaintiff allegedly billed entities that are no longer in existence further bolsters this conclusion. Accordingly, kindly provide me with dates that such records will be made available to our accountants.

In addition, please provide me with dates when Mr. Finley as well as an account representative with knowledge of defendants' records are available for depositions during the week of April 13th and/or the week of April 20th. As we discussed, the discovery end date is fast approaching and, thus, your prompt attention to this matter is appreciated.

Very truly yours,
NORRIS, McLAUGHLIN & MARCUS, PA

JAMES C. FRANCIS IV
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

: 08 Civ. 2958 (BSJ) (JCF)

: MEMORANDUM
: AND ORDER

The plaintiff, Sysco Food Services of Metro New York, LLC ("Sysco"), brings this action asserting breach of contract and related claims based on its sale of goods to the defendants. Sysco has moved to compel discovery of certain evidence. The defendants, Jekyll and Hyde, Inc., its principal Donald R. Finley, and a group of related entities, have cross-moved to dismiss certain of the plaintiff's claims. The parties have agreed that I will decide the latter motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c). For the reasons set forth below, the defendants' motion is granted, and Counts Two, Three, Five, Six, Seven, and Eight of the Complaint are dismissed without prejudice. Count Nine is dismissed with prejudice. The plaintiff's motion to compel discovery is denied without prejudice to being renewed after any amended complaint has been filed.

Background

Sysco is a company incorporated in the State of Delaware with offices in Jersey City, New Jersey. (Complaint ("Compl.") at 2). Sysco supplies goods and services to restaurants in the New York Metropolitan area. (Compl. at 2-3). The defendant corporations operate food service establishments in New York. (Compl. at 2). Mr. Finley is a resident of New York. (Compl. at 2).

Sysco claims that it is owed the following amounts: $203,042.16 from Jekyll & Hyde, Inc. (Compl. at 3); $5,643.00 from Deacon Brody Management, Inc. d/b/a Jekyll & Hyde Greenwich Village ("Brody") (Compl. at 4); $1,370.93 from Bayville Entertainment, Inc. d/b/a Bayville Adventure Park (Compl. at 5); $452,078.76 from Sixth Avenue Food Services Ltd. (Compl. at 6-7); $50,189.60 from New Castle Foods Inc. (Compl. at 7-8); $26,632.37 from Davey Jones Locker Management, Inc. d/b/a Ship Wreck Tavern (Compl. at 9); and $11,789.34 from 186 West 4th St. Management Co., Inc. d/b/a Olivers Bar & Grill. (Compl. at 10). The plaintiff further alleges that Mr. Finley acted as a personal guarantor for Brody. (Compl. at 5). Sysco claims that all of the defendants are jointly liable for one another's obligations, and therefore, if Mr. Finley acted as a guarantor for Brody, he is also responsible for the debts of all other defendants.

Sysco alleges that the defendants are all "responsible for payment of the entire amount due" because the defendants intermingled their assets and liabilities. (Compl. at 11-12). Further, the plaintiff requests that a receiver be appointed to liquidate the defendants' assets because they are insolvent and "unable to meet their pecuniary liabilities." (Compl. at 12-13).

Sysco has moved to compel discovery in order to obtain evidence that the defendants intermingled their funds. Specifically, Sysco requests that the Court issue an order requiring: (1) that Mr. Finley appear for a deposition, (2) that the defendants produce a person with knowledge relating to their accounting records, and (3) that they make available their books and records for an inspection by Sysco's forensic accountants. (Memorandum of Law in Support of Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Discovery at 1).

The defendants oppose the motion to compel discovery and have cross-moved to dismiss Counts Eight and Nine of the Complaint for failure to state a claim on which relief can be granted. They have also moved to dismiss Counts Two, Three, Five, Six, and Seven for want of jurisdiction because the plaintiff has failed to allege the minimum jurisdictional amount of $75,000 for each of those claims.

Discussion

_____ A. Standard on a Motion to Dismiss

_____ On a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court's function is to rule on the legal sufficiency of the claim as stated in the complaint. Goldman v. Belden, 754 F.2d 1059, 1067 (2d Cir. 1985). A complaint will be deemed legally sufficient if it includes "enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). In deciding the motion, the court must accept the complaint's factual allegations as true and draw all reasonable inferences in the plaintiff's favor. Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 93-94 (2007) (per curiam) (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555-56)); Freedom Holdings, Inc. v. Spitzer, 357 F.3d 205, 216 (2d Cir. 2004). Generally, in deciding a motion to dismiss, the court is limited to considering the facts alleged in the complaint, documents attached to the complaint or incorporated in it by reference, and matters of which the court may take judicial notice. See Chambers v. Time Warner, Inc., 282 F.3d 147, 152-54 (2d Cir. 2002).

B. Alter Ego Liability

____ Count Eight of the Complaint requests that the Court "pierce the corporate veil" under an "alter-ego" theory. (Compl. at 11-12; Memorandum of Law in Opposition to Defendants' Cross-Motion and in Support of Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Discovery at 3). The concept of piercing the corporate veil serves as a limitation on the principle that corporations can be set up to restrict an owner's liability. Morris v. New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, 82 N.Y.2d 135, 140, 603 N.Y.S.2d 807, 810 (1993). A corporation cannot be used as a mere shell for its owners to transact personal business. Bravado International Group Merchandising Services, Inc. v. Ninna, Inc., No. CV-08-3123, 2009 WL 2707350, at *11 (E.D.N.Y. Aug. 27, 2009) (citing Wm. Passalacqua Builders, Inc. v. Resnick Developers South, Inc., 933 F.2d 131, 138 (2d Cir. 1991)). Alter ego liability is not an independent cause of action; "rather it is an assertion of facts and circumstances which will persuade the court to impose" the obligation of one corporation upon another. Bravado, 2009 WL 2707350, at *13 (quoting Morris, 82 N.Y.2d at 141, 603 N.Y.S.2d at 810).

Under New York law, two elements are required to pierce the corporate veil: (1) the parent must exercise complete domination in respect to the transaction attacked, and (2) such domination must have been used to commit fraud or wrong against the plaintiff, which proximately caused the plaintiff's injury. Morris, 82 N.Y.2d at 141, 603 N.Y.S.2d at 810; Portnoy v. American Tobacco Co., Nos. 96/16323, 2-MG, 96-16324, 1997 WL 638800, at *4 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Sept. 26, 1997). "[A] corporate entity is liable for the acts of a separate, related entity only under extraordinary circumstances." Murray v. Miner, 74 F.3d 402, 404 (2d Cir. 1996). In addition, because of the variety of circumstances in which an alter ego theory may be advanced, courts will pierce the corporate veil only after a "fact specific inquiry." Bravado, 2009 WL 2707350, at *12

(quoting DER Travel Services, Inc. v. Dream Tours & Adventures, Inc., No. 99 Civ. 2231, 2005 WL 2848939, at *8 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 28, 2005)); see also Wm. Passalacqua Builders, 933 F.2d at 139.

Factors that tend to show domination of one corporation over another include overlap in ownership, officers, directors and personnel; inadequate capitalization; commingling of assets; absence of separate paraphernalia that are part of the corporate form; the payment or guarantee of debts of the dominated corporation by other corporations in the group; the failure of the related corporations to deal with the dominated corporation at arm's length; and the sharing of common office space, phone numbers and addresses with other commonly owned corporate entities. Wm. Passalacqua Builders, 933 F.2d at 139; John John, LLC v. Exit 63 Development, LLC, 35 A.D.3d 540, 541, 826 N.Y.S.2d 657, 659 (2d Dep't 2006) (citing Island Seafood Co. v. Golub Corp., 303 A.D.2d 892, 893, 759 N.Y.S.2d 768, 769 (3d Dep't 2003)). Here, Sysco refers to two of these factors in the Complaint: commingling of assets and inadequate capitalization.

In Count Eight, Sysco alleges that the "defendant entities intermingled their assets and liabilities." (Compl. at 11). In Count Nine, Sysco alleges that the defendants are "insolvent" and "unable to meet their pecuniary liabilities." (Compl. at 12). Sysco further alleges that the intermingling of assets makes "all of the defendant entities [] responsible for payment of the entire amount due and owing to the plaintiff." (Compl. at 11).

Rule 8(a)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires that a pleading must contain "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Claims of alter ego status need only satisfy this liberal notice pleading standard. @Wireless Enterprises, Inc. v. AI Consulting, LLC., No. 05-CV-6176, 2006 WL 3370696, at *6 (W.D.N.Y. Oct. 30, 2006). However, "purely conclusory allegations cannot suffice to state a claim based on veil-piercing or alter ego liability, even under the liberal notice pleading standard." In Re Currency Conversion Fee Antitrust Litigation, 265 F. Supp. 2d 385, 426 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (citing Old Republic Insurance Co. v. Hanson World Cargo Service, Inc., 170 F.R.D. 361, 375 (S.D.N.Y. 1997); Zinaman v. USTS New York, Inc., 798 F. Supp. 128, 132 (S.D.N.Y. 1992)). Where a complaint is "devoid of any description of the relationship between [] corporations," it is an insufficient pleading for piercing the corporate veil. Binder v. National Life of Vermont, No. 02 Civ. 6411, 2003 WL 21180417, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. May 20, 2003). In an attempt to establish alter ego liability, a plaintiff "may not rely on conclusory statements, but must allege specific facts" showing that one corporation exercised dominion over another. Portnoy, 1997 WL 638800, at *4 (citing Campo v. 1st Nationwide Bank, 857 F. Supp. 264, 271 (E.D.N.Y. 1994)).

Sysco's Complaint contains no factual allegations relevant to the alter ego theory. Rather, it makes conclusory statements that the Court need not accept as true. See Bravado, 2009 WL 2707350, at *15. While Sysco claims that the defendants intermingled their assets and liabilities, it fails to allege which corporation took funds from which.¹ See id. (vague allegation of intermingling is insufficient to support claim of alter ego liability where complaint fails to specify which defendants commixed their funds).

Sysco's remaining allegation is that the defendants are insolvent. Inadequate capitalization is but one of many factors tending to prove domination of one corporation over another, and Sysco fails to allege how insolvency in this instance shows any domination whatsoever. See id. (allegation regarding insolvency too vague to allege domination where nature and effect of defendants' insolvency not specified). Sysco's claim is "therefore too vague and conclusory to allege alter ego liability." See id. (citing EED Holdings v. Palmer Johnson Acquisition Corp., 228 F.R.D. 508, 512 (S.D.N.Y. 2005) (dismissing claim to pierce corporate veil where allegations were "conclusory"); Ferreira v. Unirubio Music Publishing, No. 02 Civ. 805, 2002 WL 1303112, at *2-

3 (S.D.N.Y. June 13, 2002) (dismissing veil-piercing claim where factual allegations were insufficient).

Because Sysco has failed to plead its alter ego theory with the necessary specificity, Count Eight is dismissed without prejudice to submission of an amended complaint, provided that Sysco can make the necessary allegations in good faith.

C. Diversity Jurisdiction

Without the ability to pursue the alter ego theory, Sysco cannot establish joint liability among the defendants. Accordingly, Counts Two, Three, Five, Six, and Seven must be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. None of these counts alleges an amount in controversy of over $75,000 exclusive of interests and costs, as required to meet the minimum jurisdictional requirement. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332. "In a diversity case involving a single plaintiff and multiple defendants, aggregation of claims is not proper unless the liability to the plaintiff is common, undivided or joint." Congram v. Giella, No. 91 Civ. 1134, 1992 WL 349845, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 10, 1992). Because joint liability has not been adequately pled here, there can be no aggregation of claims and therefore each individual claim not exceeding $75,000 is dismissed without prejudice to the alter ego theory being properly pled.

D. Receivership

In Count Nine, Sysco requests that the Court appoint a receiver because the defendants are "insolvent" and "unable to meet their pecuniary liabilities." (Compl. at 13). The plaintiff also requests the appointment of receiver in its demand for relief. (Compl. at 13). The appointment of a receiver is a remedy, not a claim for which relief can be granted. See Varsames v. Palazzolo, 96 F. Supp. 2d 361, 365 (S.D.N.Y. 2000) (appointment of receiver is "extraordinary remedy"). Thus, Count Nine is dismissed. However, the plaintiff's request for appointment of a receiver as a remedy remains, and whether such relief may be appropriate can only be determined on the basis of a complete record.

E. Motion to Compel Discovery

Because the defendants' motion to dismiss is being granted, the plaintiff's motion to compel discovery is denied without prejudice. The plaintiff may move to compel discovery at such time as it serves an amended complaint that properly pleads an alter ego theory.

Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the defendants' motion to dismiss Count Nine is granted. Their motion to dismiss Counts Two, Three, Five, Six, Seven, and Eight is granted without prejudice to the plaintiff submitting an amended complaint consistent with this decision within 30 days. The plaintiff's motion to compel discovery is denied without prejudice to being renewed should the plaintiff serve an amended complaint that properly pleads an alter ego theory.

SO ORDERED.

Plaintiff, Sysco Food Services of Metro New York, LLC,
through its attorneys Mitnick & Malzberg, P.C. and Norris, McLaughlin & Marcus, PA, as for its Amended Complaint against Defendants alleges as follows:

STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

1. Plaintiff, Sysco Food Services of Metro New York, LLC is a company incorporated in the State of Delaware with offices located at 20 Theodore Conrad Drive, Jersey City, New Jersey 07305.

2. Defendants, Jekyll & Hyde, Inc. ("Jekyll") and Sixth Avenue Food Services Ltd. ("Sixth") (jointly the "Defendants"), upon information and belief, are New York corporations with offices located at 1409 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10019.

3. Jurisdiction of this Court is based upon diversity of citizenship, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1322, et seq., and the amount in controversy exceeds the allowed amount.

FIRST COUNT

1. There is due from the defendant Jekyll & Hyde, Inc., (previously defined as "Jekyll"), to the plaintiff the sum of $203,042.16 on a certain book account, a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A." Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

2. The plaintiff sues the defendant Jekyll for goods sold and delivered and/or services rendered by the plaintiff to the defendant, upon the promise by Jekyll to pay the agreed amount as set forth in Exhibit "A" annexed hereto. Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

3. The plaintiff sues the defendant Jekyll for the reasonable value of goods sold and delivered, and/or services rendered by the plaintiff to the defendant Jekyll upon the promise of Jekyll to pay a reasonable price for the same, as set forth in Exhibit "A" annexed hereto. Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

4. The defendant, Jekyll, being indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $203,042.16 upon an account stated between them, did promise to pay to the plaintiff said sum upon demand. Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant, Jekyll in the sum of $203,042.16, plus attorneys fees pursuant to the credit application or as permitted by law, plus interest and costs.

SECOND COUNT

1. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the First Count of its Amended Complaint as if set forth at length herein.

2. There is due from the defendant, Sixth Avenue Food Services Ltd. (previously defined as "Sixth"), to the plaintiff the sum of $452,078.76 on a certain book account, a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "B." Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

3. The plaintiff sues the defendant Sixth for goods sold and delivered and/or services rendered by the plaintiff to the defendant, upon the promise by Sixth to pay the agreed amount as set forth in Exhibit "B" annexed hereto. Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

4. The plaintiff sues the defendant, Sixth for the reasonable value of goods sold and delivered, and/or services rendered by the plaintiff to the defendant Sixth upon the promise of Sixth to pay a reasonable price for the same, as set forth in Exhibit "B" annexed hereto. Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

5. The defendant, Sixth, being indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $452,078.76 upon an account stated between them, did promise to pay to the plaintiff said sum upon demand. Payment has been demanded and has not been made.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant Sixth in the sum of $452,078.76 plus attorneys fees pursuant to the credit application or as permitted by law, plus interest and costs.

THIRD COUNT

1. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the First through Second Counts of its Amended Complaint as if set forth at length herein.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendants have the same officers, directors and shareholders.

3. Upon information and belief, Defendants share one or more of the same employees.

4. Defendants each conduct the same type of business, operating restaurants and bars in the New York City area.

5. Defendants commingled their liabilities to plaintiff. For example, on January 26, 2007, Jekyll paid the sum of $121,014.87 by check to plaintiff for goods sold, delivered and invoiced to Sixth. Annexed hereto as Exhibit "C" is a copy of the January 26, 2007 check and the invoices issued to Sixth Avenue, which were paid by such check.

6. Upon information and belief, Defendants were not treated as independent profit centers.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendants primarily transacted the business of one another such that the Defendants are alter egos of one another.

8. Defendants' businesses are so inextricably intertwined and, thus, justify a disregard of the corporate structures.

9. As a result of Defendants' conduct, plaintiff has been damaged.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment that defendants Jekyll and Sixth are jointly and severally liable to plaintiff for the sum of $655,120.92, plus attorneys fees pursuant to the credit application or as permitted by law, plus costs.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
SYSCO FOOD SERVICES OF METRO
NEW YORK, LLC,

Plaintiff,

-against-

08 CV 02958 (BSJ)

JEKYLL & HYDE, INC. and SIXTH AVENUE FOOD SERVICES LTD.,

ANSWER

Defendants.

-----X
Defendants JEKYLL & HYDE, INC. and SIXTH AVENUE FOOD SERVICES LTD., by their attorney Lawrence W. Rader, answer the amended complaint as follows:

1. As to the Statement of Jurisdiction, admit the allegations of paragraphs 2 (only to the extent that defendant Jekyll & Hyde, Inc. is a New York corporation, and otherwise denied) and 3. Admit the last sentence of each of paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the First Count.

2. Lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the allegations of paragraph 1 of the Statement of Jurisdiction.

3. Deny all of the remaining allegations of the complaint.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The amended complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

There is no such entity as Sixth Avenue Food Services Ltd, and it can neither sue nor be sued.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

On information and belief, plaintiff has its principal place of business in the State of New York, and thus this Court lacks jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a).

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Some or all of the claims are barred by the statute of limitations.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is estopped from bringing these claims in that documentary evidence exists whereby plaintiff has admitted that no sums are due.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

There is no account stated in that all accounts were duly and timely objected to.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Court lacks jurisdiction over the Defendants, as they were not properly served with process in this matter.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Some of the items which comprise the First Claim have been paid.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b), Defendants hereby demands trial by jury on all matters so triable.

WHEREFORE, defendants demand that the complaint be dismissed, and that they be awarded the costs and disbursements of this action, and such further relief as may be just.

RE: Sysco Food Services of Metro New York, LLC v. Jekyll & Hyde, Inc. et al.
Case Number: 08-CV-02958

Dear Mr. Rader:

As you will recall, this firm serves as local counsel for plaintiff, Sysco Food Services of Metro New York, LLC.

This will serve as a formal demand, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26, that defendants make their books and records available for inspection by plaintiff's forensic accountants. Such discovery is necessary and relevant to Count III of the Amended Complaint whereby plaintiff alleges that defendants are jointly and severally liable for the debts of one another. Kindly provide me with dates that such records will be made available to our accountants for inspection.

I am hopeful that the defendants will cooperate with respect to our request and we can avoid further motion practice on this issue.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,
NORRIS, McLAUGHLIN & MARCUS, PA
